1:6A-1.1 Applicability

(a) The rules in this chapter shall apply to the notice and hearing of matters arising out of the Special Education Program of the Department of Education, pursuant to N.J.A.C. 6:28. Any aspect of notice and hearing not covered by these special hearing rules shall be governed by the Uniform Administrative Procedure Rules (U.A.P.R.) contained in N.J.A.C. 1:1. To the extent that these rules are inconsistent with the U.A.P.R., these rules shall apply.

(b) These rules are established in implementation of Federal law, at 20 U.S.C.A. 1415 et seq. and 34 CFR 300 et seq. These rules do not duplicate each provision of Federal law, but highlight some of the key Federal provisions which form the source or authority for these rules. Where appropriate, the Federal source or authority for a rule or Federal elaboration of a rule will be indicated in brackets following the rule. In any case where these rules could be construed as conflicting with Federal requirements, the Federal requirements shall apply.

(c) Since these rules are established in implementation of Federal law, they may not be relaxed except as specifically provided herein or pursuant to Federal law.

Case Notes

New Jersey limitations for disputing individualized education plan did not bar reimbursement claim. Bernardsville Bd. of Educ. v. J.H., C.A.3 (N.J.)1994, 42 F.3d 149, rehearing and rehearing in banc denied.

SUBCHAPTERS 2 THROUGH 3. (RESERVED)

1. If both parties consent to mediation, a mediation conference shall be held within 10 days of the hearing request.

2. If mediation is declined by either party, the Department of Education shall prepare a written document that specifies the issues in dispute, any stipulations, and evidence and witness lists for each party. This document shall be included with the transmittal form and shall be immediately forwarded to the Office of Administrative Law. Copies of the written document and of the transmittal form shall be sent to the parties.

(b) If the mediation conference results in a settlement, the terms shall be reduced to writing and signed by the parties and the representative of the Department of Education.

(c) If the mediation conference does not result in a settlement, the Department of Education representative shall prepare a written document at the mediation that specifies the issues in dispute, any stipulations, and evidence and witness lists for each party. This document shall be included with the transmittal form and shall be immediately forwarded to the Office of Administrative Law. Copies of the written document and of the transmittal form shall be sent to the parties. Any exhibits that both parties agree are admissible may be attached to the document.

(d) The Department of Education shall include with the transmittal any unsettled jurisdictional matters, notice problems, or other preliminary motions from the parties.

Case Notes

Federal law did not preempt regulation prohibiting lay person with special knowledge or training in the education of handicapped children from receiving fees for legal representation. Arons v. New Jersey State Bd. of Educ., C.A.3 (N.J.)1988, 842 F.2d 58, certiorari denied 109 S.Ct. 366, 488 U.S. 942, 102 L.Ed.2d 356.

Rule prohibiting fees to nonlawyers for legal representation does not deny nonlawyers equal protection. Arons v. New Jersey State Bd. of Educ., C.A.3 (N.J.)1988, 842 F.2d 58, certiorari denied 109 S.Ct. 366, 488 U.S. 942, 102 L.Ed.2d 356.

Possible adjustment of computer program for multiply handicapped child's home use was more appropriately addressed by agency than by emergent relief. M.S. v. Mount Laurel Board, 95 N.J.A.R.2d (EDS) 220.

(b) Any ongoing settlement efforts by the parties shall not delay, interfere with, or otherwise impede a request for a hearing or the progress thereof, nor be grounds for adjournment of a hearing, unless a party requests an adjournment and the judge approves the adjournment to a specific date. SUBCHAPTER 11. (RESERVED)

SUBCHAPTER 12. MOTIONS

1:6A-12.1 Emergency relief pending settlement or decision

(a) As part of a hearing request, or at any time after a hearing is requested, the affected parent(s), guardian, board or public agency may apply in writing for emergency relief pending a settlement or decision on the matter. An emergency relief application shall set forth the specific relief sought and the specific circumstances which the applicant contends justifies under (e) below the relief sought. Each application shall be supported by an affidavit prepared by an affiant with personal knowledge of the facts contained therein and, if an expert's opinion is included, the affidavit shall specify the expert's qualifications.

(b) Prior to the transmittal of the hearing request to the Office of Administrative Law, applications for emergency relief shall be addressed to the State Director of the Office of Special Education Programs, with a copy to the other party. The Department shall forward to the Office of Administrative Law by the end of the next business day all emergency relief applications that meet the procedural requirements in (a) above and which set forth on the face of the application and affidavits circumstances which would justify emergency relief under this section. Emergency relief applications which show no right to emergency relief or fail to comply with the procedural requirements above shall be processed by the Department in accordance with N.J.A.C. 1:6A-4.2.

(c) After transmittal, applications for emergency relief must be made to the Office of Administrative Law, with a copy to the other party.

(d) The Office of Administrative Law shall schedule an emergency relief application hearing on the earliest date possible and shall notify all parties of this date. Except for extraordinary circumstances established by good cause, no adjournments shall be granted but the opponent to an emergency relief application may be heard by telephone on the date of the emergency relief hearing. If emergency relief is granted without all parties being heard, provision shall be made in the order for the absent parties to move for dissolution or modification on two days' notice. Such an order, granted without all parties being heard, may also provide for a continuation of the order up to 10 days.

(e) At the emergency relief hearing, the judge may allow the affidavits to be supplemented by testimony and/or oral argument. The judge may order emergency relief pending issuance of the decision in the matter or, for those issues specified in N.J.A.C. 1:6A-14.2(a), may order a change in the placement of a student to an interim alternative educational setting for not more than 45 days in accordance with 20 U.S.C. § 1415(k)(2), if the judge determines from the proofs that:

1. The petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if the requested relief is not granted;
2. The legal right underlying the petitioner's claim is settled;
3. The petitioner has a likelihood of prevailing on the merits of the underlying claim; and

4. When the equities and interests of the parties are balanced, the petitioner will suffer greater harm than the respondent will suffer if the requested relief is not granted.

(f) Judges may decide emergency relief applications orally on the record and may direct the prevailing party to prepare an order embodying the decision. If so directed, the prevailing party shall promptly mail the order to the judge and shall mail copies to every other party in the case. Unless a party notifies the judge and the prevailing party of his or her specific objections to the order within five days after such service, the judge may sign the order.

(g) After granting or denying the requested relief, the judge shall either return the parties to the Department of Education for a mediation conference under N.J.A.C. 1:6A-4.2 if both parties consent to mediation or schedule hearing dates.

Amended by R.2000 d.94, effective March 6, 2000.

See: 31 N.J.R. 3875(a), 32 N.J.R. 785(a).
